PROVINCIAL SECRETARY."CIVIL SERVICE ACT, 1945."December 11th, 1945.*

PURSUANT to the provisions of section 60 of the "Civil Service Act, 1945," being chapter 11 of the Statutes of 1945, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to approve the following regulation relative to the granting of leave of absence with pay on retirement on superannuation, made by the Civil Service Commission, such regulation to be effective as of and from the 1st day of April, 1945:—

Where an employee is to retire on superannuation, leave of absence shall be granted on the following basis:—

Where the employee has completed at least twenty years' continuous service but less than twenty-five years, one month with pay:

Over twenty-five years' continuous service and under thirty years, two months with pay:

Over thirty years' continuous service, three months with pay.

Provided, however, that where it is found expedient to make a new appointment immediately, rather than await the expiration of the period of leave of absence, the retiring employee may be granted a gratuity in lieu of the leave of absence and the payment of pension would then become effective at the expiration of the period of leave of absence which the employee otherwise would have been allowed. 1172-de13

"CIVIL SERVICE ACT, 1945."December 11th, 1945.

PURSUANT to the provisions of section 59 of the "Civil Service Act, 1945," being chapter 11 of the Statutes of 1945, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to approve the following regulations, made by the Civil Service Commission:—

1. Sick-leave with pay may be allowed for minor illnesses, but the total number of working-days allowable for such illnesses in any one year shall not exceed six.

2. During the first year of service no sick-leave with pay, other than that allowable for minor illnesses, may be granted to any employee.

3. Further sick-leave with full pay may be granted on the following cumulative basis: During second year of service, two weeks' leave; and thereafter for each succeeding year, sick-leave with pay shall accumulate at the rate of two weeks for each year of service up to a maximum of twenty-six weeks.

4. Subject to section 3, sick-leave credits shall be computed by the Civil Service Commission from the date on which the employee first became employed on a continuous full-time basis; provided, however, that all periods of sick-leave, other than that allowable for minor illnesses, which have been taken subsequent to January 1st, 1935, shall be deducted from the accumulated sick-leave credit of each employee concerned.

5. Where sick-leave is necessary it shall be granted up to the accumulated amount which the employee has to his credit, after which, if additional leave is necessary, it shall be without pay, but once the employee returns to the Service, if he already has exhausted his sick-leave credit, he shall begin to accumulate further credit at the rate of two weeks for each succeeding year of service to a maximum of twenty-six weeks. If the employee should return to the Service not having exhausted his accumulated sick-leave credit, he shall again accumulate sick-leave at the rate of two weeks per annum in accordance with section 3, but carrying forward the unexpended portion of his sick-leave credit remaining after his return to duty.

6. Where an illness can be attributed directly to exceptional circumstances surrounding the duties and conditions of employment of an individual employee, the Commission, notwithstanding the provisions of sections 3 and 5, may recommend to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council the granting of additional leave with pay, but in no case shall any employee be entitled to sick-leave with or without pay for a greater period than twelve months.

7. Sick-leave may be granted only on the production of satisfactory evidence of the inability of the employee to perform his duties, in the form of a written declaration from the employee in cases where the absence has not exceeded three days and by way of a certificate from a qualified medical practitioner where the absence has exceeded three days, such certificate to be submitted within seven days of beginning of absence.

8. Where an employee makes application for sick-leave on account of injury accidentally received in the performance of his duties and not caused by negligence on the part of the employee, such application being properly supported by a certificate of a qualified medical practitioner, sick-leave may be granted in accordance with the preceding sections; provided, however, that such employee shall not be entitled to or receive salary in the amount of any award granted to or on behalf of the employee by the Workmen's Compensation Board. Except on the recommendation of the Commission, no deduction from accumulated sick-leave credit shall be made for leave granted under this section.

9. Where any employee who has served in His Majesty's Forces in the Great War of 1914-18 or in the present war is granted sick-leave with pay for the purpose of attending a medical board or receiving diagnosis or treatment for disability in a military hospital or other authorized hospital, no deduction shall be made from his accumulated sick-leave credit; provided, however, that all pay and allowances received in excess of his permanent disability pension or allowances shall be credited to the particular vote concerned.

10. Where an employee is absent for illness, the office concerned must be immediately informed, with a proper explanation of the cause of the absence.

11. Except in the case of a minor illness as mentioned in section 1, no person shall receive salary for any absence occasioned by illness without the approval of the Civil Service Commission.

12. All absences, whether authorized or otherwise, must be certified on the back of salary vouchers by the authorized signing official. 1171-de13
